

Fourth Sunday of Advent

“Mary’s prayer is revealed to us at the dawning of the fullness of time. Before the incarnation of the Son of God, and before the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, her prayer cooperates in a unique way with the Father’s plan of loving kindness; at the Annunciation, for Christ’s conception; at Pentecost, for the formation of the Church, his Body. In the faith of his humble handmaid, the Gift of God found the acceptance he had awaited from the beginning of time. She whom the Almighty made ‘full of grace’ responds by offering her whole being: ‘Behold I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be [done] to me according to your word..’ ‘Fiat’: this is Christian prayer: to be wholly God’s, because he is wholly ours” (CCC 2617).

In each Sunday of Advent, God calls us to renew our relationship with Him and His Church. "Be watchful! Be alert!" (First.) "He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." (Second.) "Testify to (witness) the light." (Third.) The child will be called holy, the Son of God." (Fourth.) How appropriate that Advent comes just before a New Year. Because of Advent, how will you be different in 2018? Discuss with your children how you plan to grow deeper in the faith in 2018. Plan some new approaches with them, perhaps some family faith time to read and discuss the Sunday Gospels. See your bulletin for the Scripture references or go to the U.S. Council of Catholic Bishops website at USCCB.org. Lots of information there!

The Holy Name of Jesus: From apostolic times, the Church has professed, “At the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Phil 2:10-11) Through the efforts of St. Bernardine of Siena, devotion to the Holy Name of Jesus was promoted through the inscription of its monogram (IHS) and the addition of the name of Jesus to the Hail Mary. Pope Sixtus V granted an indulgence for piously uttering the phrase “Praised be Jesus Christ!” (Enchiridion Indulgentiarum).

Hope. Advent and Christmas readings speak of Hope. Optimism is just a wish. Hope is a gift bestowed by God from our prayer. Hope is having faith and trusting that God will grant us eternity in the next life and the means to obtain it. Hope is the confident expectation that God will grant us some desired good in this life and give us the Spirit's wisdom to obtain it. Hope relies upon our all-powerful God, not upon ourselves. Hope is believing that God can work out for good anything that comes against us. We grow in hope by reconnecting with God through conversational prayer. We grow in hope by committing to truth as taught in Scripture and by the Church. Are you hopeful? Discuss this virtue with your family.

Prayer to the Holy Family

O most loving Jesus, Who by Thy sublime and beautiful virtues of humility, obedience, poverty, modesty, charity, patience and gentleness, and by the example of Thy domestic life, didst bless with peace and happiness the family Thou didst choose on earth, in Thy clemency look down upon this household, humbly prostrate before Thee and imploring Thy mercy. Remember that this family belongs to Thee; for to Thee we have in a special way dedicated and devoted ourselves. Look upon us in Thy loving kindness; preserve us from danger; give us help in time of need, and grant us the grace to persevere to the end in the imitation of Thy Holy Family; that having revered Thee and loved Thee faithfully on earth, we may bless and praise Thee eternally in heaven. O Mary, most sweet Mother, to thy intercession we have recourse, knowing that thy Divine Son will hear thy prayers. And do thou, O glorious Patriarch, St. Joseph, assist us by thy powerful mediation, and offer, by the hands of Mary, our prayers to Jesus. Amen.
