

The Epiphany of the Lord

“The Epiphany is the manifestation of Jesus as Messiah of Israel, Son of God and Savior of the world. The great feast of Epiphany celebrates the adoration of Jesus by the wise men (magi) from the East, together with his baptism in the Jordan and the wedding feast at Cana in Galilee. In the magi, representatives of the neighboring pagan religions, the Gospel sees the first-fruits of the nations, who welcome the good news of salvation through the Incarnation. The magi’s coming to Jerusalem in order to pay homage to the king of the Jews shows that they seek in Israel, in the messianic light of the star of David, the one who will be king of the nations. Their coming means that pagans can discover Jesus and worship him as Son of God and Savior of the world only by turning towards the Jews and receiving from them the messianic promise as contained in the Old Testament. The Epiphany shows that ‘the full number of the nations’ now takes its ‘place in the family of patriarchs,’ and acquires Israelitica dignitas (is made ‘worthy of the heritage of Israel’).” (CCC 528)

Ordinary Time

“Besides the times of the year that have their own distinctive character, there remains in the yearly cycle thirty-three or thirty-four weeks in which no particular aspect of the mystery of Christ is celebrated, but rather the mystery of Christ himself is honored in its fullness, especially on Sundays. This period is known as Ordinary Time” (Universal Norms 43). Ordinary Time begins on Tuesday, January 9 and continues through Tuesday, February 13, the day before Ash Wednesday and the beginning of the Lenten season. It will resume when the Easter season ends, that is on Monday, May 21, the day following Pentecost.

Evangelization Clip

by Deacon Jim Schiltz

Today we celebrate Jesus' baptism by John the Baptist. Our own Baptism provides us lifelong grace for daily living. Daily, pray for the Spirit's wisdom. Parents have the privilege and opportunity to be teachers and sharers of the Catholic faith. Lifelong! Spouses, grow together in the faith. As family, attend Mass and receive the Sacraments. With school kids, discuss their learning in religious education. If your children are grown, share your faith with them. Give kids of all ages the opportunity to share their faith with you. Maybe they face some faith struggle. Share your understanding with them. In life's challenges, invite them to pray to the Holy Spirit for enlightenment. Grow in the faith as a family, all the days of your life.

News from the Diocese

Mass for Life

Bishop Walkowiak will celebrate the Mass for Life on Monday, January 22nd, 2018 at 7 p.m. at the Cathedral of Saint Andrew, with a reception to follow. This date will mark the 45th Anniversary of the decision of the U.S. Supreme Court, Roe v. Wade, legalizing abortion in the United States. This year there will be a few brief testimonies at the end of Mass pertaining to the power of prayer around the theme of abortion.

Plenary Indulgence for March for Life Participants

Christian faithful who participate in the 2018 March for Life may receive a plenary Indulgence. In order to receive the Indulgence while attending the March for Life you must be detached from sin, pray for the Pope's intentions and, within a few days, make a sacramental confession and receive the Eucharist.

The elderly, sick, and those unable to leave home will be able to receive a plenary Indulgence if they fulfill the same requirements as those of the pilgrims while spiritually joining themselves to the March and offering prayers and their own physical sufferings to God.

If you are not able to complete all of the requirements necessary for a plenary Indulgence you may still be granted a partial Indulgence.

Nine Days for Life

Since the Supreme Court's Roe v. Wade decision 45 years ago, more than 58 million children's lives have been lost to abortion, and the lives of millions of parents have been shattered. In prayerful recognition of these lost and broken lives, the U.S. Bishops invite Catholics and others nationwide to participate in Nine days of prayer, penance and pilgrimage (Jan. 18-26). Please visit: <http://uscbb.org/about/pro-life-activities/january-roe-events/nine-days-of-prayer-penance-and-pilgrimage.cfm> for details or to receive the daily novena in English and Spanish each day by email, text, or through their app.

Chalking the Door

This time-honored Christian tradition is a way of marking our homes, usually at the front or main entrance, to ask God's blessing upon those who live, work, or visit throughout the coming year. In Exodus, the Israelites marked their doors with blood so that the Lord would pass over their homes; but in this service, we mark our doors with chalk as a sign that we have invited God's presence and blessing into our homes.

This service commonly takes place on Epiphany (also known as Twelfth-Night, Theophany, or Three Kings Day) commemorating the visiting of the Christ Child by the three Magi with their gifts of gold, incense and myrrh. The formula for the service is simple: take chalk of any color and write the following above the entrance of your home: 20+C+M+B+18. The letters have two meanings. First, they represent the initials of the Magi — Caspar, Malchior, and Balthazar — who came to visit Jesus in His first home. They also abbreviate the Latin phrase, Christus mansionem benedicat: "May Christ bless the house." The "+" signs represent the cross, and the "20" at the beginning and the "18" at the end mark the year. Taken together, this inscription is performed as a request for Christ to bless the home so marked and that he stay with those who dwell therein throughout the entire year.

Practicing traditions like the chalking of the doors helps us to live our faith more concretely and serve as an outward sign of our dedication to Our Lord. Our homes are also the place where many of us will make the greatest strides in our spiritual growth, through observance of daily prayer, spiritual reading, and work offered as an oblation to God.

The chalking of the doors of a home encourages Christians to dedicate their life at home to God and to others. Seeing the symbols over our doors can help to remind us, while passing in and out on our daily routines, that our homes and all those who dwell there belong to Christ. It also serves as a reminder to welcome all who visit us just like the Holy Family welcomed the Magi.

Blessed chalk is available near the Creche at both churches along with copies of a short prayer that may be used. If one wishes, the following longer prayer service may also be used:

On entering the home,

Leader (Father of the family): Peace be to this house.

All: And to all who dwell herein.

All: From the East came the Magi to Bethlehem to adore the Lord; and opening their treasures they offered precious gifts: gold for the great King, incense for the true God, and myrrh in symbol of His burial.

All Pray the Magnificat:

My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior; Because he has regarded the lowliness of his handmaid; for, behold, henceforth all generations shall call me blessed; Because he who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name; And his mercy is from generation to generation on those who fear him. He has shown might with his arm, he has scattered the proud in the conceit of their heart. He has put down the mighty from their thrones, and has exalted the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has given help to Israel, his servant, mindful of his mercy - - Even as he spoke to our fathers - - to Abraham and to his posterity forever.

Leader: Our Father. . . And lead us not into temptation

All: But deliver us from evil.

Leader: O Lord, hear my prayer.

All: And let my cry come to You.

Leader: Let us pray. O God, who by the guidance of a star didst on this day manifest Thine only-begotten Son to the Gentiles, mercifully grant that we who know Thee by faith may also attain the vision of Thy glorious majesty. Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Leader: Be enlightened, be enlightened, O Jerusalem, for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee—Jesus Christ born of the Virgin Mary.

All: And the Gentiles shall walk in thy light and kings in the splendor of thy rising, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon thee.

Leader: Let us pray. Bless, + O Lord God almighty, this home, that in it there may be health, purity, the strength of victory, humility, goodness and mercy, the fulfillment of Thy law, the thanksgiving to God the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. And may this blessing remain upon this home and upon all who dwell herein. Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

After the prayers of the blessing are recited, the inscription is then written upon the main entrance with the blessed chalk:

20 + C + M + B + 18
