Man's Freedom

“An effect can be tolerated without being willed by its agent; for instance, a mother’s exhaustion from tending her sick child. A bad effect is not imputable if it was not willed either as an end or as a means of an action, e.g., a death a person incurs in aiding someone in danger. For a bad effect to be imputable it must be foreseeable and the agent must have the possibility of avoiding it, as in the case of manslaughter caused by a drunken driver.”

“It has been often said, very truly, that religion is the thing that makes the ordinary man feel extraordinary; it is an equally important truth that religion is the thing that makes the extraordinary man feel ordinary.”

-G. K. Chesterton

Please Note

If a parishioner or loved one is in the hospital or in care, please call the office and let us know, so that a priest can visit to administer the sacraments.

Hospitals and other facilities do not automatically contact the church office for reasons of privacy, so we do not know if someone has been admitted unless a friend or family member tells us!

CSA Fast Fact: Prison and Jail Ministry

The Prison and Jail Ministry establishes and maintains Catholic religious services within 21 correctional facilities located in our 11-county diocese, as needed. This ministry has more than 150 active volunteers, including Bishop David Walkowiak, lay men and women, priests and deacons. Through these volunteers, we offer 44 weekly services, including Masses, Communion services, RCIA classes and prayer services. These services are held in six prisons, four county jails and three juvenile detention centers.

In addition to our services offered inside correctional facilities, we now offer spiritual support and programming for those returning to society through our new re-entry outreach ministry called GROW (Guiding Returning Citizens to Our World).

Your CSA gift helps support this outreach effort to our incarcerated brothers and sisters, who desire to begin, strengthen and walk further in their Journey with Christ and His Church.

Evangelization Clip

by Deacon Jim Schiltz

“The Lord appointed seventy-two whom He sent... they returned rejoicing.” Note these “seventy-two” were not the Twelve Apostles, but unnamed disciples who spoke to people about Jesus and the Kingdom that He was bringing. They were excited during their mission and rejoiced upon completing it. Jesus sends us. In fact, He has planted us! Planted us among family and friends to lead them to Jesus. We are not “street-corner preachers” but a Mom or Dad, brother or sister, friend or parishioner who leads others to Jesus and His Church. We do that in words, but we most effectively evangelize by the way we live our lives. So, be a witness to the goodness Jesus brings into your life. Plant some seeds! And Rejoice!

Scam Update & Action Steps

Scammers are continuing to impersonate priests in the Diocese of Grand Rapids through email, text or Facebook messenger, asking parishioners to respond to urgent requests for cash or to purchase gift cards. Don't fall for it. Your pastor or associate pastor will never contact a parishioner directly with an emergency request for cash or gift cards. Messages asking parishioners to help fulfill a need would come through the parish's or the diocese's official communication channels or be accomplished through a collection approved by the diocese. If you're not sure about a text, email or Facebook message you've received, do not engage or respond and call your parish office to notify a staff member. In addition, please note that neither your parish nor the diocese will ever sell or give away parishioners' personal information. For ongoing updates and information on identifying and avoiding scams, visit <http://bit.ly/GRdioceseScamUpdate>.

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thy I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy, hear and answer me.

Amen.
